

Join our workshop:

One Health: Interdependencies between Human, Animal, and Environment.

Five leading international experts will bring their expertise to one room for one day to discuss topical One Health-issues. This is a unique opportunity for interactive discussions with speakers coming from industry, universities, regulatory agencies, environmental, veterinary and human health with experiences across six continents.

If you are interested in One Health, this is the Workshop to make new contacts.

Speakers and topics:

Dr. Klaus Hellmann
Argenta, Munich, Germany

“From Humans to Animals: Developing Human Medicinal Products for Veterinary Use”

Dr. Gábor Kardos
University of Debrecen, Hungary

“Antibiotic resistance in healthcare and beyond”

Prof. Carlos Lanusse
Centro de Investigación Veterinaria de Tandil (CIVETAN), UNCPBA,
CICPBA, CONICET, Tandil, Argentina

“One Health Pharmacotherapy: translating knowledge from animal health to benefit human parasitic disease control”

Prof. Lloyd Reeve-Johnson
Goyd Project Solutions - One Health Consulting: UK, Australasia, SE Asia, Africa

“Critical interdependencies between human, animal and environmental health - the importance of antimicrobial resistance”

Dr. Marilyn Martinez
FDA, Department of Health and Human Services
CPK1, 5001 Campus Drive, College Park, MD 20740-3835, U.S.A.

“Transmission of Infectious Diseases: A One Health Concern”

Looking forward to seeing you at the workshop.

For more information about the Congress, its Workshops, and registration: <https://eavpt26.org/>